Dear Forest Green Families,

From our Counselor: Kids and Tech

Growing up in a digital world and navigating social media is something that most parents will need to address at some point in time with their children and teens. There are many things to consider and every family's rules and expectations for technology use will differ. As parents, it is our job to help our kids establish safe & healthy habits for tech use. Below are some resources you may find helpful when deciding what tech will look like in your home.

Check out these helpful tips for parents.

Book Suggestion: The Tech Solution. In this book Dr. Shimi Kang guides parents through the process of creating their own family plan for tech use and provides practical suggestions on how to help children grow up in a digital world.

Lost and Found: Is Your Closet Missing Something?

Our Lost and Found is brimming with treasures! From ski pants, ski jackets, hoodies and other items, toques, and more, it's a cozy collection of forgotten favorites just waiting to be reunited with their owners.

If your child is coming home lighter than they left in the morning, stop by to see if their missing gear has joined our collection.

Family Literacy Day – January 27

Join us on January 27 as we celebrate Family Literacy Day at Forest Green School! This special day highlights the joy of reading and the importance of family literacy. To make the day extra fun, we're inviting students and staff to dress as their favorite book character—we can't wait to see everyone's creative costumes!

At 2:15 p.m., parents are invited to come into the school for a cozy reading session. Bring a blanket or pillow, find a comfortable spot, and enjoy reading with your child - and maybe one of their friends. It's a wonderful way to spend time together and share the love of books.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Report Cards Go Live January 30 @ 4:00 PM!

Mark your calendars! Starting January 30 at 4:00 PM, report cards will be available for viewing through your Parent Portal in PowerSchool.

Logging into the Parent Portal is an essential step in staying connected with your child's academic progress. It's a great opportunity to celebrate their successes and identify areas where they might need additional support.

If you haven't set up your Parent Portal yet or need assistance logging in, please contact the school office—we're here to help!
